Compiled by Francis J. Crown, Jr.

Description

Type A

Type B

Type C

Chattanooga Straight-Line Postmarks (not to scale)

Identifying the three types of postmarks

All postmarks are in blue ink except some on 25 December are in black ink. Most strikes of the postmarks are incomplete or blurry.

Type A – The first letter of the month is under “NO” of “CHATTANOOGA” and is an italic font. Period of use: 9-22 December 1863.

Type B – The first letter of the month is under “HA” of “CHATTANOOGA” and is in a Roman font. On 25 December the first letter begins to move under the “A,” Period of use: 23-31 December 1863.

Type C – The first letter of the month is under the first “T” of “CHATTANOOGA” and is in a Roman font. The postmark is enclosed in a box with a serrated edge. Period of use: 1-17 January 1864

Dates – Identifying the date can be difficult without examining the actual cover or a high-resolution image. For this reason, most dates in this census are based on the source descriptions or the Congress Book (see reference in “Notes).”

NOTE: Every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of the census, but the inclusion of an item is not a guarantee of authenticity.

Notes

Period of Use

The Chattanooga straight-line postmarks were used for the 40-day period 9 December 1863 to 17 January 1864. At least one example is recorded from each day except 10 December 1863 (see Jim Cate Congress Book reference below).

Color of Postmarks

All postmarks are in blue ink except for three in black ink dated 25 December 1863.

25 December 1863 Postmarks

On 25 December, the postmaster used two colors of ink: blue and black. According to Jim Cate (see Congress Book reference below) only four covers bearing black postmarks are recorded.

History of the Chattanooga Straight-Line Postmarks

A detailed history of the Chattanooga straight-line postmarks and their use is the Congress Book article by Jim Cate (reference below).
